

Scholarship Descriptions

The scholarships described below are awarded to students annually who are in masters, doctoral and herbs programs. The scholarships are paid in the fall term. To apply, please follow the Application Procedures listed on page 2.

Application Deadline: August 16, 2019

Leadership Award

The Leadership scholarship award is $1,000 this year. It is awarded by a member of AOMA's executive leadership team to a currently enrolled AOMA student in good academic standing. The leadership of AOMA seeks to support AOMA students who contribute to the professional community of Chinese medicine through their leadership and/or publication that contributes to the field. Leadership activities can include involvement with national, state, or student professional associations, or participation in legislative efforts. Publication can include personal work/research published in professional journals or on the web. The recipient is selected based on their AOMA GPA and response to the essay questions.

AOMA Scholarship

The AOMA Scholarship is one award of $500 awarded by the board of the AOMA Alumni Association to a second- or third-year student who demonstrates overall excellence in Chinese medical studies. Recipients are selected based on their AOMA GPA, grades in individual subject areas, financial need, and response to the essay question.

Golden Flower Chinese Herbs Scholarship

Each year, Golden Flower Chinese Herbs generously provides AOMA with scholarship funds of up to $5,000 – the number of awards depends on the funds available. These funds are awarded by AOMA's scholarship committee (faculty and administrators) for up to 6 students who demonstrate academic excellence and financial need. Recipients are selected based on their AOMA GPA, grades in individual subject areas, financial need, and response to the essay question.
